GLOOM CAST OVER YALE

ONE STUDENT KILLED AND THREE INJURED IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT.

THEIR CAR WAS OVER TURNED

Dead Man One of the Most Prominent of Undergraduates—One of the Injured Was Commencement Guest.

New Haven, Conn., June 26.—A frightful automobile accident this morning which caused the death of one undergraduate and injured more or less seriously two other students and a guest cast a gloom over the commencement exercises at Yale today.

The killed student was D. Leet Oliver, son of Mrs. J. B. Oliver, of Pittsburgh, Pa., a senior in the Sheffield scientific school, member of the St. Anthony fraternity, and one of the most prominent members socially of the upper classmen.

The injured are W. L. Strothers Jones, of Red Bank, N. Y., a Sheffield junior, and J. C. Colston, of Baltimore, a senior of the same department, and a young man named Hudson, a commencement guest of the others, all of whom live at St. Anthony's fraternity house.

The young men were out riding in the suburbs when the car turned over.

BRIDE-TO-BE HONORED

Mrs. W. H. Ramsey Entertains for Miss Ethel Collins.

Mrs. W. H. Ramsey was hostess to a company of friends at her home yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Ethel Collins, who is to be married Saturday.

The prize in the rice contest, a Japanese vase, went to Miss Florence Floyd, while the prize for the fantan game, also a Japanese vase, went to Miss Grace McKenzie.

The guest of honor was presented with a pair of silk hose.

Refreshments of sweetbreads, peas in cases, hot rolls, tomatoes with dressing and orange ice were served.

A BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Was Given in Honor of Miss Della Crouch Last Night.

Miss Della Crouch, formerly a Bell telephone operator, now with the Western Union telegraph company, was the guest of honor at a delightful surprise given at the home of her mother, 1509 East Ninth street, by a number of her friends last night.

The affair was planned in honor of Miss Crouch's birthday, and a number of beautiful presents were received.

Music assisted in entertaining the guests, and at a late hour ice cream and cake were served, after which all returned home, delighted with the evening spent so pleasantly.

A PLEASING RECITAL

Misses McVey and Goodwin and Messrs. Ware and Nofsker.

A very good attendance was present at the recital given by Miss Lucile McVey for the benefit of the B. Y. P. U. of the East Sedalia Baptist church at the East Broadway Christian church last night.

Every number on the program, which was printed in the Sunday Democrat-Sentinel, was excellently rendered, and did credit to Miss McVey and her assistants, Miss Mae Goodwin and Messrs. Geo. Ware and Harry Nofsker.

Carrie Nation Locked Up.

Washington, June 26.—For entering a saloon and raising a disturbance, Carrie Nation was arrested here last night on a charge of disorderly conduct. She was placed in the house of detention for the night.

Knights of Columbus Met.

The regular meeting of Sedalia council of the Knights of Columbus was held last night, but only routine business was transacted.

Committees Meet Tonight.

At last night's meeting of Apache tribe of Red Men a committee of three, with W. D. O'Bannon as chairman, was appointed to meet with a committee of three, with R. C. Dolph as chairman, from Wichita tribe, to meet jointly tonight to arrange for the Red Men's memorial services to be held next Sunday.

He Has Toured the West.

Adolph Becker, formerly a messenger boy at the Western Union telegraph office, who has been traveling through the west as a telegraph operator for some time, arrived home last night to visit relatives.

No Police Court Cases.

Today was a quiet one in police court, there being no cases for Judge Gresham to pass upon.

THE PLAYERS OF GOLF

HAD DELIGHTFUL TIME AT THE COUNTRY CLUB TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

MUSIC BY BRANDT'S ORCHESTRA

In 9-Hole Match Hannibal Ladies Defeated Sedalia Ladies, But Local Male Players Defeated Visiting Men.

The team match Tuesday between the golfers of the Hannibal Country club and the Sedalia Country club resulted in a draw. The Hannibal ladies defeated the Sedalia ladies, but the Sedalia men defeated the Hannibal men.

Five of the Hannibal ladies played against a like number from the Sedalia club. They played 9-hole matches, the Hannibal ladies winning.

The men's team each consisted of thirteen players. They played 18-hole matches. The Sedalia team won a majority of these matches.

After the matches were over the members of the clubs took their dinners on the club house veranda, and after dinner Brandt's orchestra furnished music for the dancers.

The Hannibal party left for home on the evening train. They expressed themselves as very much pleased with the club house, the golf links and the hospitality of the local club.

The local players are of the opinion that the defeat of the Hannibal team was largely due to their lack of acquaintance with the local links.

The visiting players are true sports and insist that their defeat was due to the superior playing of the Sedalia team.

WERE MARRIED TODAY

Mr. Percy Walker and Miss Letha Asher in Kansas City.

Miss Letha Asher, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Bell Asher, and her daughter, Mrs. William Tristch, left early this morning for Kansas City, where at 10 o'clock this forenoon she was united in wedlock by Rev. A. R. Faris, of Kansas City, to Mr. Perry Walker, foreman of the machine shops of the Iron Mountain railway at Little Rock, Ark.

Among the attendants from this city were Mrs. J. E. Love and daughter. The bridal couple will leave Kansas City Thursday for a visit of several weeks at Colorado Springs and Pueblo, Colo., and Salt Lake City, and after July 20 will be at home to friends at Little Rock.

WILL CLOSE 100 SALOONS

State License Increase and Early Closing Will Wipe 'Em Out.

St. Louis, June 26.—On account of the increasing the state license from $100 to $200 a year for saloons and the new 1 a. m. closing law, Excise Commissioner Mulvihill predicts that about 300 St. Louis saloons will close for good July 3.

Another cause is that wholesalers must discontinue retail traffic under the Humphrey law.

The commissioner says the laws will be strictly enforced.

Just after Morris was killed in the fight in St. Louis with detectives, Vaughan says that Kline was taken to St. Louis for the purpose of identification. Vaughan says in his statement:

"Morris and others did the train robbery, but this man Kline, who was brought from Chicago and placed in the cell with me to be identified by Morris, was in no way connected with the robbery, and if he is serving time in the penitentiary for this offense he should be released, as he is an innocent man."

WHAT'S HAPPENING

MUST HANG TOMORROW

HARRY VAUGHAN, ONE OF TWO TO BE EXECUTED AT THE STATE CAPITAL.

TALKED WITH PARDON ATTORNEY

Says Young Criminals Should Be Treated With Kindness—He Gives Some Good Advice to Young Men.

Jefferson City, Mo., June 26.—"The parole system is the salvation of the young criminal." These were the words of Harry Vaughan, the leader of the prison riot of 1905, who is to be executed in this city with his confederates, Ryan and Raymond, tomorrow.

The words were spoken to State Pardon Attorney Thomas Speed Mosby. Through a Catholic priest of this city, Father Geisert, Vaughan had sent for Mr. Mosby.

Heretofore Vaughan has refused to converse with anybody. Throughout the trying period since the prison outbreak he has maintained a sullen silence. Yesterday, however, he talked with Father Geisert and expressed a desire to see the pardon attorney.

"I do not want a pardon," said Vaughan to Mr. Mosby, "nor do I ask or expect clemency of any kind. Thursday I expect to hang. I am responsible for the outbreak and expect to pay the penalty."

Mr. Mosby then asked him if he desired to make any statement to be communicated to the governor.

"I do not," said Vaughan, "but I merely want to say to you a few things which may tend to keep others from crime. I have heard that you are a student of these subjects, and that you have written some for magazines. I have also been a student of criminology and would like to tell you my views about crimes and criminals."

This is the only request Vaughan has ever made. Seemingly he has been content to meet his fate in silence. But apparently, he could not die in peace without having left some word behind to save those who may come after.

He said he wanted no publicity, but simply wanted to give his experience to one whom he thought would use the information for the benefit of humanity.

He insisted strongly upon the parole system, stating that mercy alone could save the young criminal. Touching crime in general Vaughan said that it was due mostly to ignorance.

"The criminal does not think correctly," he said. "If all men were wise, none would be criminals. It all seems plain to me now."

Vaughan was baptized in the Catholic faith in his cell at the penitentiary yesterday morning by the Reverend Father Geisert, of this city. The two other convicts who are to be executed with him—Edward Raymond and George Ryan—were baptized several months ago. All have expressed the most keen regret for the crimes that will bring them to the gallows within so short a time.

Beforé leaving here for Tennessee Governor Folk, upon an examination of the statutes, discovered that it was not necessary for him to pardon these men from the prison in order that they may be taken to the Cole county jail and executed. In such cases it has been the custom in the past for the governor to pardon convicts when they are about to be executed for other crimes than those for which they were sent to the penitentiary.

Governor Folk said that this seemed to have been a matter of custom, as the law makes specific provision that where an inmate of the penitentiary is convicted of a capital offense while serving a term for a lesser offense, he may be taken from the prison directly to the gallows, upon proper conviction of murder in the first degree, and executed.

The convicts will not be removed from their cells at the penitentiary before tonight and possibly not until tomorrow morning.

Vaughan made a sworn statement yesterday afternoon, in which he exonerates a man named Kline, supposed to be in the penitentiary at Joliet, Ill., from participation in the hold-up of the Illinois Central train near Chicago in August, 1904.

Just after Morris was killed in the vigil in St. Louis with detectives, Vaughan says that Kline was taken to St. Louis for the purpose of identification. Vaughan says in his statement:

"Morris and others did the train robbery, but this man Kline, who was brought from Chicago and placed in the cell with me to be identified by Morris, was in no way connected with the robbery, and if he is serving time in the penitentiary for this offense he should be released, as he is an innocent man."

Wade Called Fire Lads.

An overflow of oil from a gasoline stove at the home of Mrs. Anna Bergfelder, over Kroenke & Cordes' store, this forenoon, attracted the attention of Wade Wilfong, the negro transfer man, who in unearthly yell called out the fire department. The excitement was quieted before any damage by the fire had resulted.

A "STORY" ABOUT PILLS

IN THIS CASE, HOWEVER, IT IS SAID TO HAVE BEEN OLD. FASHIONED "LIE."

AN ALLEGED BOGUS TESTIMONIAL

Because of This Fact Col. Jack Chinn, a Noted Kentucky Gentleman, Demands Damages Aggregating $25,000.

Harrodsburg, Ky., June 26.—Col. Jack Chinn has today filed suit against the Foster Millburn company, of Elmira, N. Y., for $25,000.

This firm manufactures patent medicines, among them kidney pills. Some weeks ago the company circulated an almanac throughout this country, containing a picture of Colonel Chinn and under it a strong letter with what purported to be a fac simile of his signature.

Among other things the colonel was made to say:

"I heartily endorse the kidney pills. When I was feeling miserable and had severe pains in the back, was restless and languid, a few boxes of them effectively routed the ailment and I am glad to acknowledge the benefit I derived."

Colonel Chinn says he never took a kidney pill in his life, and in his petition says the publication caused him great mental suffering and mortification, and brought him into ridicule among those who know him, and has discredited him with the people at large.

J. E. Muro, of New York, an agent of the company, was caught in his room at the hotel here and the papers served on him. The almanac was distributed all over the United States.

The ladies of Sacred Heart church gave a well-attended ice cream social at the home of Mrs. M. W. Cadle, on West Third street, last night, and a neat sum was realized from the affair.

The lawn was decorated with Japanese lanterns, and between twenty and twenty-five gallons of ice cream was needed to serve the guests.

The Sedalia Military band was present and gave a number of delightful selections that were appreciated to the fullest by many guests present.

WILL DO SAN FRANCISCO GOOD.

The holding of an industrial peace congress, as proposed, in San Francisco during the summer ought to be productive of much good. While its results would be national in scope and benefits, the greatest good would be realized where it is greatest needed, namely, on the Pacific coast. Industrial conditions in that part of the country, and particularly in San Francisco, could hardly be more deplorable than they are at this time, and have been for some months past.
Labor and employers are far apart.
Strikes have interfered with practically every form of activity in which the city is engaged in the monumental task of rehabilitation.
They have been responsible for bloodshed, chaos and paralysis of business and the diversion of upbuilding forces away from the metropolis to other booming western cities.

Growing out of this industrial crisis a state of general civic demoral-ization has arisen. Corruption in amazing proportion found its way into the government of the city.
Bribe takers and bribe givers flourished in the quick exchange of capital for franchises and in the protection of gross vices which make their appearance in every sudden recovery of a large city from a catastrophe.
With all the opportunities for honest money making there have been as many avenues for crooked enterprises. Unfortunately, there was at the head of the municipal government at the crucial period of reconstruction through which it was passing, a ven-tal mayor, corrupt board of supervisors and other officials wanting in honesty. As a result of their conspiracies and graft San Francisco was plunged into a state of insecurity and tumult which threatened to stop all progress and turn the wheels backward.

Just at this critical juncture the trouble with Japan arose, the incidents leading up to it being indirectly due to the afflictions under which the city was laboring.

San Francisco needs a general cleaning up, it needs a better system of municipal administration, political reform and a new set of city officials chosen because of their fitness and honesty.

It also needs a thorough and amicable understanding between the employers and the employees, which in all probability would be realized by the proposed industrial congress.
The other necessities it appears to be about to provide for itself, in the shape of an official scrapping and in the punishment of those who have violated positions of public trust.

The editor of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat appears to be on the verge of nervous prostration these days, and his tender feelings have lately been lacerated by the statement of the Chicago Tribune that "there is no republican party in any of the so-called southern states." One can hardly blame the Globe-Democrat for getting excited about it, for it is so evidently true that outside of the federal office holders there is not much to be found of the republican party in the south. For instance, at the caucuses in New Orleans lately there were only about 700 votes cast and there are over 700 republican officeholders.

There are a good many "cornfield lawyers," and some who would scorn such a designation, giving opinions on constitutional questions that indicate they do not understand the constitution when they read it. Others like Secretary Root make the sinister provision that the constitution must be construed to mean what the republicans require to carry out their policies.

The latest candidate for presidential honors from the south is Governor Beckham, of Kentucky, who, his friends declare, is one of the greatest democratic leaders. He is now by the votes of the people nominated for United States senator, but the Waterson "dark horse" may be an obstacle in his path for higher honors.

Henry M. Whitney, of Boston, is making a great hit in his speaking campaign in Massachusetts for tariff reform, which is added to the distinction heaped upon him from the White House of being the original member of the Ananias club.

Mr. Bryan is reported to have said at Richmond that he would be a candidate for the democratic nomination for president, "if the party demanded it and he considered it for the good of the party." A very sensible conclusion.

The republican warfare in Ohio will from now on take a more liquid hue, for Foraker has gone home to ring in a general fire alarm.

In mutinying one day and surrendering the next, the French troops surpassed anything of which the Russians can boast.

MISTOOK ACID FOR WATER

And Twig of Kentucky's First Governor is Dead.

Jeanerette, La., June 26.—J. Warren Shelby, aged 37 years, one of the most prominent business men of Jeanerette, died yesterday from the effects of drinking carbolic acid by mistake.

Instead of taking a mineral water prescribed by his physician he mistook the bottle, and before realizing his mistake had taken at least two ounces of the deadly acid. He was alone with his wife, and before any assistance could come he was dead.

Shelby was the son of Mayor Isaac Shelby, of Danville, Ky., and a great-grandson of the first governor of Kentucky.

CONSTABLE HAD TO DO IT

Placed Himself Under Arrest and Will Plead Guilty.

Marion, Ind., June 26.—Constable Jacob Middleton had a painful duty to perform yesterday when he placed himself under arrest upon a charge of violating the pure food law.

Middleton, in addition to performing the duties of constable of Center township, conducts a down-town cafe.
The affidavit against Middleton was filed in Justice Holman's court.

It charges that milk sold by Mid-leton did not possess the necessary richness. After serving the warrant upon himself Constable Middleton announced that he would plead guilty and hereafter refuse to sell milk in his cafe.

"My joints were stiff and gave me would crack when I straightened up.

I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and have been thoroughly cured. I have not had a pain or ache from the old tainly a most wonderful liniment."

NEW STATE'S ELECTION

SUPREME COURT DISSOLVES IN-JUNCTION GRANTED IN WOODS COUNTY.

APPEAL TO THE HIGHEST TRIBUNAL

Justice Burwell, Dissenting, Holds Old Laws Are Required by Act
—The Points That Were Passed Upon.

Guthrie, Okla., June 26.—With a sweeping denial of the jurisdiction of the courts in any matters pertaining to the constitutional convention, the Oklahoma supreme court yesterday afternoon dissolved the injunction granted by the district court of Woods county restraining the calling of an election on the constitution so long as it provided for the division of certain counties.

The vote on the question of jurisdiction was five to two. By a vote of four to three the court held the election ordinance adopted by the constitutional convention to be valid.
The majority opinion holds that the convention has plenary powers, except as limited by the United States constitution and enabling act.

Justice Burwell dissented from the opinion on the election ordinance, and held that the enabling act required that the first election be held strictly under the Oklahoma election laws, which meant that the present county officials in Oklahoma should have charge of the election and that no additional election machinery was called for on the Oklahoma side.

Attorney Horace Speed gave notice of appeal to the United States supreme court in the Greer and Day county cases. Attorneys Noah and Snoddy, in the two Woods county cases, have not decided whether they will appeal.

An attempt was made to obtain an expression from the court as to whether superseداces would be allowed in case of appeal, putting the injunc-

LEFT HIM $40,000

The Good News Was Too Much and Beneficiary Suicided.

South Norwalk, Conn., June 26.—When informed that he had fallen heir to an estate of $40,000 Frank C.
Randle, aged 35 years, of this city, gazed blankly at his informant, and then without a word hastened from his home. A short time later his dead body was taken from the Norwalk mill pond. It is believed that joy over his good fortune drove him mad and to suicide.

When Randle left his home, after learning of his inheritance, he entered the little store where his father had labored for more than half a century to accumulate a fortune.

Seating himself Randle remained in deep thought for nearly an hour.
Then saying that he was going for a drive he drove to the mill pond, where he removed his clothes and plunged into the water.

CHICAGO NEWS LETTER

THE UNITED STATES SHOULD UTILIZE ITS SPLENDID WATERWAYS.

THE COSTUME OF "IGORROTES"

"My Mother's Teeth Are Plugged With Zinc" and Other Popular Aids—Graduation Gowns Should Cost Only 75 Cents.

Special to Democrat Sentinel.

Chicago, June 26.—The warning to the United States spoken by Ambassador Bryce, of England, in St. Louis, last week, that failure to utilize our waterways was the most serious obstacle to the future development of the resources of this country, was closely followed by evidence that the railroads are awake to the results of waterways neglect. This neglect was clearly seen by the eminent Briton while Americans have been slow to realize it because they have been so busy and depended on railways for transportation with little regard for other cheaper means.

The costume of the Igorrotes is not one to pass muster in Chicago. The city council has instructed the chief of police to ascertain whether it was true, as alleged by an alderman who bears the name of Golombiewski, that the costume was confined to "one cloth known as a G string," and, if so, to design a costume more appropriate for foreign visitors to this city. Helpful suggestions have been made; one alderman urged lavender pajamas with large polka dots and chocolate hued tights. Golombiewski, however, stands pat for his "pants." As he originated the uplift of Igorrote attire, it is likely that "pants" it will be. Meanwhile the weather continues hot and the Igorrotes continue—comfortable.

The rattle time ails which his neighbors fiddled so rasped upon the cultivated ear of Theodore Butawitz that last week Butawitz remonstrated. The fiddler regarded his repertoire of "The Pand on Nellie's Hat," "My Mother's Teeth Are Plugged With Zinc" and "A Little Bit More," as quite satisfactory. He told Butawitz that if he didn't like the tunes he could lump them or move or do other things.

"Ach!" exclaimed Butawitz, and soon the two were interspersed and Butawitz finally landed on the fiddler's head with the fiddle. As a matter of fact, Chicago was shown to be one of the musical centers of the United States, for when the National Piano Dealers' association foregathered for annual convention President B. B. Crews said more instruments per 1,000 inhabitants were sold in Chicago than any other city. That was going some, for Boston and New York have made some claims heretofore to musical taste among their citizens. The Theodore Thomas orchestra, one of the greatest musical organizations in the world, has done much for popular education of the people in the best class of music.

The 1907 commencement of Northwestern university was notable for the fact that Chicago was shown to be making remarkable strides in education, the present rank of the big universities of the country being:

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

A "PROMINENT MAN," EH?

Name Not Given, Figured in the Galant Captain's Suit.

Cleveland, O., June 26.—Barbers throughout the city want to know whether under the law, a coat shirt can be interpreted to be a coat. Arthur Unger, barber shop inspector, acting under direction of the board of health, has put a ban on shirt waists for barbers' wear. The health code requires that barbers shall wear a white coat or jacket.

Peters testified that his wife, formerly Miss Lilian West, received notes from men, and that he once trailed her to Columbus, where he saw her enter a house of questionable character with a prominent man, whose name was not revealed.

Mrs. Peters did not contest. It is said that a private settlement was made. Peters served in the Spanish war as captain of a local company.

Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Kill the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair and baldness, you will have no more dandruff and your hair must grow luxuriantly. Hericide not only contains the dandruff germ destroyer, but it is also a most delightful hair dressing for regular toilet use. No other hair preparation is on this scientific basis of destroying the dandruff germ, and none other claims to be, for the simple reason that it's only recently that a destroyer of the germ has been discovered—Newbold's Hericide, the only hair preparation that actually kills dandruff. During a lull in the strenuous declarations and denials by Chicago newspapers that Mrs. Potter Palmer, of Chicago, altogether the leader of society in this city in the few months each year when she is not abroad, will marry the Earl of Munster and Baron Tewkesbury, comes a pastoral incident about Mrs. Palmer's father. As is well known, Mrs. Palmer is the widow of Potter Palmer, who built the Palmer house and also a fortune which yields an annual income of $370,000; she also was president of the board of lady managers of the world's fair. Her father, B. L. Honore, manages the estate and the two sons are allowed respectively $12,000 and $10,000 a year. Most of the estate is realty, and a lot needed fencing, so the day being fine Mr. Honore set an example by building the fence himself, assisted only by a butler,

SHE LOST HER LINGERIE

Hysterical Woman Traveler Picks Up Wrong Grip.

Philadelphia, June 26.—An hysterical woman made things hum at the Chestnut street ferry when she discovered that in place of a bag containing several pieces of valuable jewelry, to say nothing of innumerable ruffled garments run with pink and blue ribbons, she had a horrid old grip, stuffed with wires, carbons and kindred nasty things.

Quite happily, Mrs. Mary Phillips left her Mount Airy home yesterday, en route to Cape May, with her nearest and dearest possessions in her Gladstone bag. This she placed on the floor while she purchased her ticket, then in one of those mad, last minute rushes for the boat she picked up the nearest valise and fled on board. A few minutes later an excited, flurried woman burst into Superintendent McCausland's office, in Camden, where it took the whole office force to pacify her.

In the meantime Prof. William H. Amwake, of Blackwood, N. J., and his small granddaughter had reached Broad street station, where the youngster shrieked, "Grandpa, that isn't your bag."

A hasty inspection proved that the youngster was right, and a much-embarrassed professor retraced his steps to the ferry, from which a detective assigned to the duty, was about to start in search of the missing lingerie.

Who held the nails. Attention is kindly called to the wonderment of the family as to where he acquired the skill with tools which he displayed and doubtless Mrs. Palmer's memory of her childhood could furnish no clew worth mentioning. However, the fence was completed in a day.

REASON WAS RESTORED

And Adams, After Killing Musgrove, Gave Himself Up.

Zanesville, O., June 26.—Charles Adams, crazed by the after effects of a spree, locked himself in Robert Musgrove's woodshed yesterday, believing that a posse was pursuing him.

Musgrove, not knowing of Adams' presence in the woodshed, went to the building on an errand, and just as he was about to open the door Adams opened fire with a shotgun.

The load tore a gaping wound, and he died at the Good Samaritan hospital. Mrs. Musgrove is Adams' niece. Musgrove was 24 years old.

The tragedy seemed to have brought Adams to a realization of the enormity of his offense, and he went directly to police headquarters and gave himself up.

WOE BETWEEN HER SOBS

WAS BAPED BY JUDGE LOVING'S DAUGHTER AS SHE TOLD OF WRONG DONE HER.

DRUGGED BY ESTES, SHE SWORE

Girl Declares She Took One Drink and Knew No More—Told Her Parent of Her Plight and Killing Followed.

Houston, Virginia, June 26.—Between stifling sobs and with tears streaming from her bright blue eyes, while striving to hold back the huge lump in her throat, Miss Elizabeth Loving, who has occupied the center of the stage in the trial of her father, Judge William G. Loving, for the murder of Theodore Estes, told on the witness stand her story of her alleged ruin by the young man whom her father shot down. The recital was the most dramatic ever heard in a Virginia court and rivaled the story told by Evelyn Nesbit Thaw of her ruin by Stanford White.

It was the same story, she said, that she told to her father on the morning of the tragedy, and which culminated in his hunting down and slaying the man whom she accused.

Estes, she said, had given her a drink of whisky from a bottle he had in his pocket, while they were out buggy riding on the afternoon prior to the killing.

After taking the drink she declared that she immediately began to feel dizzy and her head "spinned around" as if she had been given some powerful drug. In this condition, and despite her protests, she declared that her escort drove her over an unfigured road, and despite her screams, ruined her.

Exhausted by the struggle and her mental faculties rendered incapable from the stimulant, the witness declared that she recalled nothing more until she regained her senses while in bed late that night at the home of County Clerk E. L. Kidd, where she had been visiting Miss Kidd.

She testified that on the following morning, when her father asked her for the cause of her being brought to the home of Mr. Kidd in an unconscious and drugged condition, she related to him on bended knees the same story she told today.

This was the recital, declared the defense, which so affected the mind of Judge Loving that it impelled him to commit a crime, which, according to his statement, could have been prevented by no power "except God Almighty."

The prosecution claims that it can be shown that the act laid at the door of the man whose lips are sealed forever was impossible.

Miss Loving admitted she has taken two drinks with young Estes during the drive, the first one being while at Estes' store. She was asked about other occasions, when it is charged she drank whisky, but the defense objected.

Daniel Harmon, attorney for the prosecution, cross-examined the witness, presenting a map of the country over which the buggy ride was taken, and asked that the witness fix the point where Estes gave her a drink.

She could not remember exactly, but designated the neighborhood. She

WOULD HANG FOR BROTHER

Negro Preacher Thinks Both Might Then Reach Heaven.

Montgomery, Ala., June 26.—John Beeman, a negro preacher, applied to be allowed to die on the gallows for his brother, David, the date of execution being July 26.

The preacher says he will go to heaven and his brother, being a bad man, might not. His sacrifice would have a tendency to convert his brother and both would thus get to heaven.

The offer of the negro has caused a wave of sympathy for both, and a petition is being circulated, asking the governor to commute the sentence.

NOT MINISTERIAL CALL

Certainly Some Other Noise That Her Nephew Heard.

An elderly woman now living in the west, formerly a resident of Allentown, Pa., not long ago visited her relatives in that town. She was especially interested in the progress of a nephew who had entered the ministry. She had not seen him since his boyhood, and was, therefore, anxious to attend services at his church.

At dinner, subsequent to the Sunday sermon she heard delivered by her nephew, it was observed that the old woman was singularly reticent.

Suddenly she broke her long silence by asking her nephew, "Frank, why did you enter the ministry?"

"Why aunt!" exclaimed the young divine. "What a question! I entered the ministry because I was called!"

Just a suspicion of a smile came to the old woman's face, as she responded, "Are you sure, Frank, that it wasn't some other noise you heard?"

Italy's New Cereal.

Italy has produced a new cereal for break-making purposes that is attracting a good deal of popular attention. A public test was made the other day at Mesbrino of baking bread from flour of the new grain, which is named Olio Cafro, and has been developed by a priest of the name of Candeo. The bread was pronounced to be palatable, light, and, mixed with one-third of wheat flour, is declared to make a sustaining food at very low price. Besides this, the "Inventor" says that its general use would do away with the pellagra in Italy.—London Globe.

Hoped the Whipping Would Cause Tom Vanest to Leave the Country, But in This They Were in Wrong.

Columbus, Ind., June 26.—Thomas Vanest, a blacksmith, aged 42, of South Bethany, 10 miles west of this place, has filed affidavits against Charles, Joseph and Andrew Stult, Charles Seitz, John Burkhardt, James Kirtz and Canady Clark, charging them with white capping him.

At 1 o'clock in the morning six men called at the Vanest home, and, breaking down a door to the home, took Vanest from his bed and flogged him unmercifully with a hickory club. His wife cried and pleaded with the white cappers not to harm her husband, but they took him a half mile from his home, where the whipped him in his wife's presence, she having followed them with a babe in arms.

After the whipping the wife assisted her husband, who was almost unconscious, to his home.

The white cappers told their victim they had whipped because he had beaten his wife and told him that if he did not leave the country they would kill him.

Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, accompanied by Attorneys O'Reilly and Peabody, called on Thaw in the Tombs yesterday. Evelyn was deeply affected by the anniversary. Thaw looked worse than in weeks. The prisoner's checks were sunken, his skin, always dark, had an unhealthy tinge; his eyes were almost out of their sockets and even the guards were shocked at his appearance.

WAS "DUMMY" PACKAGE

IT WAS TO HAVE BEEN PALMED OFF ON A COUNCILMAN AT PITTSBURG.

ALLEGED TO CONTAIN $70,000.00

Starting testimony is given in the Tube City Graft Cases and There is More of it to Follow.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 26.—Testimony taking in the cases of Brokers C. R. Richardson and A. B. McGraw, of Marietta, Ohio, in the Tube City graft cases was closed with some rather interesting testimony on the part of both defendants, who are accused of having conspired to bribe Councilman W. A. Martin and others for $70,000.

It was McGraw, it is alleged, who furnished the $70,000 in cash with which President Cameron and Brokers Richardson made the "flash" that blinded the eyes of the councilmen.

McGraw said that he had furnished the cash as a business transaction, not knowing to what use the money was to be put. He, as a broker, had done this for Cameron, not only before the expose, but since.

District Attorney Goehring punctured the testimony of McGraw badly when he made him confess that the firm of C. R. Richardson was practically owned by him.

Broker Richardson, in his own defense, admitted having carried the $70,000 bribe money from McGraw to Cameron, and on Cameron's order he had fixed up a "dummy" package, similar to the real money package, with the understanding that it was to be palmed off on Councilman Martin. Richardson became sadly tangled in giving his testimony, contradicting that of McGraw quite frequently.

Armed with a warrant for A. A. Cameron, brother of C. S. Cameron, and ready to ask his extradition, a local detective was sent to Marietta, O., to bring Cameron to Pittsburg. Cameron is regarded as an important witness in the case pending against J. H. Milholland and Joseph Flaherty. Their hearing will probably be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Attorney John Marron, who is prosecuting them, declined to say why Cameron is wanted in Pittsburg. The elder Cameron was the one to whose room in the hotel Antler the package with $65,000 of the alleged graft was returned.

THE NATIONAL CAPITALAMBASSADOR AKI, OF JAPAN, PLACED IN EMBARRASSING POSITION.OLD SOLDIERS WHO WERE ROBBED

Secretary of the Navy Metcalf Has Gone to the Pacific Coast—Gave Cotton Crop Statistics Away.

Washington, D. C., June 26.—In spite of the circumstantial report that Ambassador Aki, of Japan, was about to be recalled, official confirmation is lacking. It is known that Ambassador Aki has a number of enemies at the Japanese court, and he has been put in a very embarrassing position, at least, it would be embarrassing for a Caucasian, in having to report one thing to the government and see the government give out an entirely different thing to the public.

This was the case in the killing of the Japanese poachers on the island of St. Paul, and in some of the Japanese troubles that have occurred on the Pacific coast. Since the report of his recall the Japanese foreign office has kept quiet, neither confirming or denying the report, and at the Japanese embassy here the ambassador has denied himself to all newspaper callers, and explained through his secretary that it is impossible for him to talk on any subject, even the weather.

As matters have developed, the commissioner of pensions seems to be doing a very thorough job of cleaning up land bounty grafters who have for many years been fattening at the expense of the old pensioners. About six months ago the commissioner began to be aware of what was common knowledge in Washington for years, that there was a regular business being carried on in speculating in land bounty warrants.

As many people do not seem to be familiar with the law it may be worth while to explain that soldiers, their widows and their heirs of all the wars prior to March, 1855, are entitled to a bounty of 160 acres of government land, in addition to their pensions.

This is right enough if the old soldiers of their widows get it. But there are many pension agents who have made a practice of hunting up pensioners who had not claimed their land bounty, putting the claim through for them and then buying the warrant from them as cheaply as possible and selling it to the highest bidder.

There was a regular market in land script, and a warrant for 160 acres was worth from $700 to $750. They were mostly sold to the big timber and mineral land companies. The attorneys used to get them from the pensioners to whom they were issued from for $75 upward. They usually represented that the bounty was worth nothing after it was obtained, and one firm, which was disbanded last week, is alleged to have made $100,000 out of dealing in land script alone. In fact, they did nothing else.

There were many pitiful cases unearthed in which old soldiers and their widows had been shamelessly robbed, and in some cases the pension firms would even have executors appointed for dead soldiers who had neither heirs nor widow.

Some firms have been disbarred from practice before the interior department, and a number of others are now under investigation. Any who have been dishonestly treated by their attorneys can present their cases to the commissioner of pensions and they will be fairly investigated.

The officers of the government who are willing to sacrifice themselves on the altar of their country by taking a vacation at the seashore during the hot weather, are beginning to fit out of Washington. Secretary Metcalf, of the navy, has just started on his summer vacation on the Pacific coast. His home is out there, but he is going to investigate labor conditions and work in the ship yards. So it is quite possible he will be able to charge the trip up to the government.

There has been trouble about warship building on the Pacific coast, sure enough. The price of labor and materials has advanced enormously, the former owing to the exactions of the labor unions, and the Union Iron works, which made a world wide reputation in building the battleship Oregon, has notified the navy department that it will be impossible for it to accept any more government contracts. This is annoying, as it had been intended to have one of the two 20,000-ton battleships built on

GOOD NEWS KILLED HIM

Man Who Had Been Left an Estate
Valued at $100,000.

Washington, Pa., June 26.—William Preene, a day laborer of Washington, was so overcome by the news that he had inherited an estate valued at $100,000 that he fainted and died a half hour later in a local hospital. Preene had not been at his father's home in Ohio since he was a boy. He roved the country until a year ago when he came here.

At noon yesterday Chief of Police Delaney showed Preene a letter in which it was said that his father had just died on a farm in Ohio, leaving his entire wealth to his son.

"You're not fooling me, chief?" he asked. He was assured that his wealth was bona fide. Preene seemed dazed, and then throwing up his hands fell unconscious to the pavement. He never regained consciousness. There are no near relatives to claim the estate.

"STORIES" OF THE RAIL

WILLIAM C. VAN HORNE WHEN HE WAS WITH THE SOUTHERN MINNESOTA ROAD.

JAMES J. HILL "PACKED HIS KIT"

How Mr. John M. Egan Used to "Buck Snow" When He Was Superintendent of One of the Railways Way Up North.

When I first knew Sir William C. Van Horne, writes A. W. Dunn, he was superintendent of the Southern Minnesota railroad, a line running from the Mississippi river through the southern tier of counties of the state. At least it was intended to cross the state, but for many years it halted after being constructed half the distance. It was extended west while Van Horne was superintendent, and he had charge of the work. Under his supervision a bridge was constructed across the Des Moines river, which was quite afeat of railroad building in those days, as the trestle was sixty feet high for more than a quarter of a mile, and was wholly of wood. Van Horne watched the progress of that bridge day after day, and was often seen walking along foot wide timbers at its extreme height, scanning first one and then another part of the structure.

A good story about James J. Hill was told to a group of his friends by Norman W. Kittson, a man who was years ahead of Hill in the Red River country, and who, to use his own expression, "packed my kit from La Crosse to Winnipeg and back." This was a distance of about six hundred miles, and Kittson went on foot and tramped in furs all along the route with the Indians. He was another wonderful man of the early West. Kittson became rich, as riches went, when Hill was a clerk in a steamboat office in St. Paul. When Hill began his great career by buying a railroad and extending it northward, he interested Kittson in his enterprises. Hill needed credit, and Kittson allowed him to use his name.

"I knew," said Kittson, "that I had indorsed more paper than I was worth; but I had confidence in him most of the time. Then I got scared and felt that everything was gone, and that it didn't make any difference and I signed anything Hill brought."

It is almost unnecessary to say that the smash never came; that Hill used Kittson's name with good effect in the east, where he was reported a much wealthier man than he really was; and also that Kittson had a great deal more when he closed up with Hill than when they first began business together.

It was Fred D. Underwood, now president of the Erie railroad, who taught me railroad poker, a fascinating and expensive game for a man who hasn't a quick eye and comprehension. It has to be played in this way:

We will suppose that we are sitting in a private car, and a freight train is going by. Every car is numbered; most of them in five figures, some in six, or some in four, but seldom less than four. The old cars with the low numbers have been worn out. Well, as the freight train passes, each man in turn takes a car and picks out a poker hand. For instance 14400 would be a pair of tens and fours, and 13311 would be three aces and a pair of treys. Of course, the figures are often all mixed up and it takes a quick eye to call the hand.

The best hand wins the pot when the train has passed, and the party then await the next train. Mr. Underwood in his early railroad days had experience in catching and writing down the numbers of an entire freight train as it moved past, and there are few men who can beat him at railroad poker.

He was once a brakeman on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, and tells an interesting story of an ex-

NEW FAD IN BLOUSES

LACE GARMENTS THREADED WITH SILK OR VELVET RIBBON.

Some Pretty Ideas For Seasonable Garments In Either Silk or Lace—The Effect of a Soft Tie.

The lace blouse, everywhere recognized as marvelously economical, still is kept outside of the range of commonness by new ideas in its selection and treatment. Instead of the over-worked way of bringing it into harmony with the skirt by means of ribbon bracelets and girdle, it is now threaded with ribbon, either soft velvet or with silk cut bias, and hemmed with the narrowest roll possible.

This silk draws through and either knotted like a tie or having the ends simply pendant in front is charming; it has fringe knotted into them and any pretty, rich decoration of embroidery stitches added. The velvet is finished off with clusters of loops like rosettes and sometimes will be started half way down the back and threaded over the shoulders, ending with the rosettes at just that point on the bust which will bring the long line from the shoulder down to the turn of the figure, now raved over by dressmaker artists.

The soft will be set around under the arms like the finish of a bolero, drawing it up as it reaches the front and leaving the ends to hang to the waist.

Another way is to thread it around the shoulders in the line of a bertha, although this only can be done when there is long shoulder seam. The largest meshed laces are in demand for this pretty fashion, another form of which is carried out with gold ribbon laid over a backing of cloth like the skirt.

Economical and pretty for evening petticoats are those of white net greatly beribboned. They are easily cleaned and even washable and are equally pretty to wear with smart afternoon frocks and any second season white silk or brocade petticoat can be easily rejuvenated by its owner with flounces of thick net trimmed with wash insertion to match or with wash ribbon.

What everybody does not know is that faille, the new silk standby for houses will wash with great success in the white and if care is taken even in the pink and pale colors. An exquisite blouse of this silk has shoulder tabs and corresponding tab coming out from under the stock in front of the material, edged with real baby Irish lace an inch wide. These tabs are embroidered with large disks of white silk, which also appear with the lace on the cuffs of the short sleeves.

This blouse, which, by the way, is copied from a famous waistcoat's model, is tastefully worn by its owner with white pearl beads and an extremely long bar pin of the same Roman pearls, set so as to conceal all of the structure and to stand out in unspoiled whiteness like the string of beads.

Changing the Piano.

In the very commendable effort to change things around a bit and give the house a new look at housecleaning time, it is just as well to be a little careful in the matter of placing the piano. A refreshingly new and changed appearance may be given to a room by having the piano in another corner, but if that corner is near a window or close to a register the scheme had better be abandoned. A piano is extremely sensitive to cold, heat or dampness. It is a great mistake to put it too near to the fire or radiator, because the heat is apt to affect the delicately constructed sounding board and interfere with the tone of the piano. A piano which stands by an open window on a rainy day is almost sure to be damaged. The dampness rusts the wires and otherwise affects the interior.

When disposing of the bric-a-brac room do not save a large share of it for the top of the piano, rather let the instrument be unencumbered by books and ornaments so that the purity of the tone will not be interfered with.

Correct Mourning.

Fashions in mourning have undergone a very great change since the wonderful improvements that have been in crepe. In the first place, it has been successfully waterproofed and is no longer extravagant wear. Then the soft finish crepe is particularly well adapted to the picturesque and artistic gowns of the present day. Instead of the gowns being trimmed with folds and volants of crepe this season entire empire and empress gowns will be worn of this soft and graceful crepe. Simplicity will be the keynote of all mourning gowns. For millinery long, soft-finish crepe veils will be used to drape the large and small shapes, and will fall in two long ends below the waist. Paris and Vienna have taken up this crepe and it is being used extensively for all articles of mourning.

Lace Coats for Evening.

Lace coats will be worn for evening and for day and they assume many forms. In Irish lace they sink into the belt of a V-shaped trimming of velvet, which borders the sleeves of the same. Straight-fronted coats entirely of lace, made after the order of the paletots, of years ago, three-quarter length, are a good example. For day wear lace coats are often supplemented by a good deal of velvet, which covers the back and the front of the bodice portion, the lace, as it were, being appliqued on to it.

WIFE AND 10 CHILDREN

HAVE DIED SINCE BYRNE BEGAN A CHRISTIAN SCIENTIST.

ONLY ONCE WAS DOCTOR CALLED

Would Just as Soon Call Real Estate Dealer or an Automobile Driver as a Regular Physician.

New York, June 26.—Clarence Byrne, a Christian Scientist, of No. 273 West Twelfth street, whose 6-year-old daughter, Violet, died May 4th, last, without medical attention, was arrested on a warrant issued by Magistrate Walsh in Center street police court.

The warrant was issued at the instance of Coroner Acritelli. It charges that Byrne, willfully and without legal excuse, failed to furnish medical attendance for his little girl when she was dying of bronchial pneumonia. It was served upon him in the department store in which he is employed.

When arraigned before Magistrate Walsh the elderly prisoner pleaded not guilty and waived examination. His bail was fixed at $500, which was furnished. The case was then sent to trial in the court of special sessions.

At the inquest Coroner Acritelli held into the death of Violet Byrne, the father testified that ten of his children and his wife had died since he had taken up the Christian Science faith. None of them received medical attention until a few moments before they died.

Mr. Byrne said that he then only called in a physician to comply with the law. He had not done this in the case of the little girl, as she sank very rapidly.

The Christian Scientist declared that he would as soon call in a real estate agent, an automobile driver or a teamster as employ a physician.

REGARDING RAILROADS

SAYS SHIPPERS' INTERESTS ARE FULLY PROTECTED BY AGREEMENT.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

There seems to be a misunderstanding in the matter of the agreement reached between Attorney General Hadley and the attorneys of the eighteen trunk line railroads of the state regarding the new maximum freight-rate law, says a Jefferson City dispatch. In many quarters the opinion prevails that in no event will the shippers receive any benefit from this law until after such time as the hearing pending in the federal court at Kansas City has been determined.

This, according to a statement made by the attorney general, is not correct. The agreement, he says, not only provides for speedy hearing of the suit, but the railroads have agreed to preserve every shipping bill, to the end that, if the law is eventually held to be valid, the shippers may receive the difference between the rates now charged, the old schedule, and the rates provided in the new law, which, in a general way, are about 25 per cent lower.

As matters now stand, shippers are compelled to pay the old rates, but they have the assurance that, if the new rates are held to be lawful, the overcharges will be returned to them. No such an agreement was secured in the contest over the maximum-freight-rate law of 1905, which is yet in litigation, with no immediate prospect of adjudication.

It has already been pending before the federal court at Kansas City for more than two years, and Master Scofield, of Hannibal, before whom testimony has been submitted, has not yet been able to conclude the same and submit his report to the court.

Asked when the issues in the suit instituted by the railroads to enjoin the enforcement of the new law of 1907 would be ready for submission to the court, Attorney General Hadley said that he believed everything could be concluded within the next thirty days.

The Missouri Pacific Lost.

The Kansas City court of appeals has sustained the Cole county circuit court in the case of the suit for personal injuries of Christ Fassbinder, of Osage City, against the Missouri Pacific railroad.

The plaintiff secured a judgment against the company for $2,500 for the loss of a leg. The accident occurred at Osage City, and the plaintiff alleged that a defective brake caused it. The circuit court gave judgment for $2,500, which judgment the appellate court has affirmed.

Missouri Pacific Pays a Fine.

The suits filed by Prosecuting Attorney Rhoton against the Iron Mountain Railway company for issuing mileage books to members of the 1905 legislature have been compromised by the railroad company agreeing to pay $12,500, says a Little Rock, Ark., dispatch.

Mr. Rhoton will collect in all from railroad companies violating the anti-legislature pass law about $18,000.

AIRSHIP ALIGHTS IN CROWD

Aeronaut Later Falls From Machine into East River.

New York, June 26.—A big, cigar-shaped airship, in charge of Lincoln Beachey, sailed across the bay from Staten Island yesterday, circled above Brooklyn, swept over East river and alighted gently in the midst of a crowd numbering thousands in Battery park.

A few moments later the operator set the ship in motion again and the machine rose to an altitude of about 500 feet and started northward over the skyscrapers of Manhattan island.

Mr. Beachey then sent his airship over the East river toward Long Island Sound. In some manner he collided with a spindine which marks a ledge of the Sunken Meadows, his airship was badly damaged and was thrown into the water. He was rescued by a boatman, much exhausted.

"RED" DAVIS WAS THERE

No Use of Topeka Trying to Outrowd Wichita Fans.

The members of the Wichita team feel that they have a grievance against the Topeka fans who were occupying that part of the grand stand near the visiting players' bench, says Tuesday's Topeka Journal.

Several of the fans passed insulting remarks reflecting upon the Wichita players, and some even went so far as to hurl missiles at the players. One fan took Holland's cap off his head while he was standing awaiting his turn at bat. Pop bottles were also thrown, but no one was struck.

The insults became so severe that Red Davis, who was coaching on the first base line, called down several people in the grand stand. This is hardly the proper spirit for the fans to show at a ball game.

It is all right to cheer or hiss a ball player, but when it comes to abusing the Wichita players or the players of another team, the fans in Topeka especially ought to know better. There is no use trying to outrowd Wichita.
